

VISITING ARTISTS AND CONTRIBUTORS

Job Description: Visiting Artists plan and execute a themed workshop, performance, or activity that takes place during a limited period of time, decided upon in conjunction with the Director of Operations and relevant Head(s) of Shop. Visiting artists are provided with food and accommodation throughout the duration of their proposed workshop, which includes time needed to prepare and eventually break down any supporting materials.

Job Description: Visiting Contributors are responsible for providing a limited service, seminar, training, or other such logistical item that takes place during specific dates in the summer, as described and agreed upon by an initial proposal of work. Visiting Contributors stay for the duration of their proposed item, which includes time needed to prepare and eventually break down efforts, and depart at the conclusion of their proposed plan.
